

Eliot Cherson Esq.

ELIOT J. CHERSON is a Senior Partner of the Law Firm of Rappaport, Hertz, Cherson & Rosenthal, P.C. located in Forest Hills, Queens and has been in practice since 1977. The firm specializes in Housing Court litigation; real estate litigation and closings. He is a member of the New York State and Queens Bar Associations; as well as serving on the Civil Court Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. He has also served on various committees of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York including the Housing Court, Civil Court and Select Committee on Court Restructuring. He is also a member of the Rent Stabilization Association (RSA) and CHIP.

In 1991, Mr. Cherson became Legal Counsel to the Bronx Board of Realtors, Inc., the largest trade organization in the Bronx. In 1995, Eliot was awarded the Board's "Affiliate Member of the Year Award" for distinguished service. In 1996, he helped guide the Board to its successful inclusion of Manhattan into its' territory. As a result, in 1997, the Bronx Board of Realtors, Inc. became the Bronx-Manhattan Association of Realtors, Inc.

In 2002, Mr. Cherson was designated as an Owner Representative on the Westchester County Rent Guidelines Board.

Active in all aspects of the Board and its' legal affairs, Eliot continues his work with the Board.
